RTD's Board of Directors to meet remotely starting today

Change being made in the interest of public health; public can call in to participate

DENVER (March 24, 2020) – Starting today and until otherwise noted, all official meetings of the Regional Transportation District \(RTD\)'s Board of Directors will be conducted remotely, in the interest of public health, safety and welfare.

All items – including committee meeting agendas, minutes and full-text transcripts from past meetings – will continue to be posted on the Board of Directors webpage on the RTD website, under “Board Meeting Resources.”

All meetings will remain open to the public. To listen in, call 855-962-1128 (no passcode is required).

The public will continue to be able to address the Board at its monthly meetings, beginning today. Callers interested in doing so should dial *3 once connected, placing public speakers in a queue and allowing the Chair to call on them in turn. As a reminder, public comment is not received during other meeting types, such as committee meetings and study sessions.

The Board's Operations & Customer Service committee approved this change at its March 10 meeting. To hear Board of Directors Chair Angie Rivera-Malpiede discuss the decision, click here.
