Maintenance on RTD University of Colorado A Line to temporarily disrupt service

Customers can use bus shuttles to get to their final destination July 31-Aug. 1

DENVER (July 28, 2021) – Due to routine maintenance, there will be no rail service on the Regional Transportation District's (RTD) University of Colorado A Line between the Peoria and Denver Airport stations Saturday, July 31 and Sunday, Aug. 1.

The University of Colorado A Line will continue to operate between Union Station and Peoria Station while the maintenance takes place. Regular service will resume on Monday, Aug. 2.

RTD will provide bus shuttles at affected stations. The gate assignments are below:

- Peoria: Gate E
- 40th Ave & Airport Blvd•Gateway Park: Gate A
- 61st•Peña: Next to platform
- Denver Airport: Gate 7

Customers should anticipate delays due to the maintenance and are encouraged to explore alternate routes if their trips are impacted by the rail closure on the RTD website.

Per federal mandate, a mask is required while riding on RTD vehicles or in RTD facilities.

ABOUT RTD

The Regional Transportation District develops, operates and maintains a public transportation system that meets the transit needs of close to 3 million people within an eight-county service area in the Denver Metro region. RTD's buses, rail lines, shuttles and additional services provide approximately 100 million annual passenger trips.
