

Broncos fans, RTD will provide service to and from home games

Bus and rail options are available; plan ahead and pack a mask

DENVER (Aug. 16, 2021) – With the first Broncos pre-season home game approaching this month, the Regional Transportation District (RTD) wants fans to know that its services remain a safe and reliable way to access the stadium through the very last play.

While BroncosRide bus service remains suspended, several local bus routes will be available, and RTD will scale up rail service to add capacity as necessary to accommodate extra customers. Light rail service directly serves Empower Field at Mile High. Several bus routes and commuter rail service connect to Denver Union Station, allowing for a simple transfer to the C, E and W light rail lines, which directly serve the stadium.

Rail service

RTD will add capacity to regularly scheduled rail service to accommodate the suspension of BroncosRide service.

- E and W Line light rail service will directly serve Empower Field at Mile High. Limited C Line service will be available just prior to and immediately after games.
- The University of Colorado A Line, B Line, G Line and N Line commuter rail service is available to Denver Union Station with a simple transfer to the C, E and W light rail lines.

Bus service

Some Local bus routes operate in the vicinity of Empower Field at Mile High:

- Route 30 (South Federal Boulevard)
- Route 31 (North Federal Boulevard)

Several bus routes serve Denver Union Station with a simple transfer to light rail to get to Empower Field at Mile High:

- Flatiron Flyer
- 0, 9, 10, 15, 20, 32
- 120X, LD

The following bus routes serve Decatur•Federal Station:

- 1, 15L, 16, 31

Helpful game day tips

- Fans must wear a mask while riding RTD services due to the federal mask mandate for public transportation.
- Plan ahead and prepare for large crowds.
- Purchase a round-trip fare when purchasing tickets at the ticket vending machines to avoid long lines after the game.

ABOUT RTD

The Regional Transportation District develops, operates and maintains a public transportation system that meets the transit needs of close to 3 million people within an eight-county service area in the Denver Metro region. RTD's buses, rail lines, shuttles and additional services provide approximately 100 million annual passenger trips.
