

Weekend work to impact RTD W Line light rail service between Red Rocks College and Garrison stations

Bus shuttles will serve the W Line at affected stations

DENVER (April 19, 2022) —The Regional Transportation District \(RTD\) will perform a scheduled inspection of the 6th Avenue Bridge near the Denver Federal Center on Saturday and Sunday, April 23-24.

Service on the W Line between Red Rocks College and Garrison stations will be interrupted over a 48-hour period beginning Saturday and continuing through the end of service on Sunday. Regular service will resume Monday. The inspection will also require lane closures on 6th Avenue.

- RTD is offering bus shuttle service for W Line customers between Red Rocks College and Garrison stations. W Line customers can access the shuttles at the following gates:
  - Red Rocks College – next to platform on West 6th Avenue Frontage Road
  - Federal Center – Gate B
  - Oak – Gate B
  - Garrison – next to platform on West 13th Avenue
- The W Line will operate on 30-minute frequency between Jefferson County Government Center•Golden and Red Rocks College stations, and on 15-minute frequency between Garrison Station and Union Station.

Customers should anticipate delays and are encouraged to explore alternate routes, including bus routes 3 and 16, if their trips are affected by the rail closure. Check the RTD website before traveling to explore alternate routes, view schedules and plan your trip.
