

RTD light rail trains will not serve 18th•California Station Sept. 6-13

The agency's D, H and L Line service will be offered at nearby stations during sidewalk repairs

DENVER (Sept. 1) — The Regional Transportation District (RTD) will close its 18th•California Station for one week from Tuesday, Sept. 6, through Tuesday, Sept. 13, to accommodate third party work to replace the sidewalk along California Street.

While the work is underway, the sidewalk will be closed to pedestrian traffic and RTD customers will not be able to board or deboard trains at 18th•California Station. Customers may access D, H and L Line service at nearby 16th•California, 16th•Stout, or 18th•Stout stations.

The 18th•California Station will reopen to customers on Wednesday, Sept. 14.

RTD encourages customers to use its Trip Planner and Next Ride web apps to plan a trip and see bus and train locations in real time. Customers may also sign up for Service Alerts for specific route information.

ABOUT RTD
