

RTD to host hiring fair next week at Denver workforce center

Recruiters will be on hand to discuss opportunities in bus and rail operations, IT and engineering

DENVER (May 10, 2023) – Want to bring your talents to work for RTD? For three days next week, job-seekers can stop by Denver Workforce Services' newest workforce center, at the Wellington E. Webb Municipal Office Building, to learn more and apply for key frontline positions on the spot. RTD employees will be on hand to provide information about opportunities available throughout the agency.

RTD will focus on different career opportunities each of the three days, from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. May 15, 16 and 17:

- On Monday, May 15, Talent Acquisition Specialist Paige McCain will speak to open positions in rail operations.
- On Tuesday, May 16, Talent Acquisition Specialist Kay Blunt will answer questions about positions in bus operations.
- On Wednesday, May 17, Talent Acquisition Specialist Brenda Salas will have details about roles in IT and engineering.

RTD offers competitive wages, excellent benefits and the opportunity to build a satisfying career in public service. To learn more about jobs available at RTD, visit the agency's Careers page.

A $4,000 signing bonus is offered for certain IT and cybersecurity positions, as well as key positions that include bus operators, rail operators, train engineers, body shop technicians, general repair mechanics, signal power maintainers and electro-mechanics.
